

Ronnie C. Ayers

Berry High School
Class of 1963

Ronnie Ayers is now living in Fort Worth, Texas. He is married to Jo Ayers. Ronnie & Jo have two daughters; Wendy Jordan (35) and Diane (34). Windy has provided them with two (2) grandsons Cole (10) and Jacob (6).

He has retired from working with a large pharmaceutical company for thirty five (35) years. He was “Vendor of the Year” at Walmart and won the President’s Award for Sales for six times during his tenure with the company. He has not slowed down since retirement. He has started his own business which is a brokerage company and is presently associated with the sales of NASCAR products. So if you are a Jeff Gordon or Jimmie Johnson fan maybe Ronnie can sell you something. Ronnie says that his favorite hobby or past time is golf and traveling.

Ronnie states that “The Berry Schools definitely had a huge impact on my entire life since leaving school. I went to the Army and was sent to Vietnam. I know within my own heart that the reason I was able to cope with being in Vietnam was because of training and influence of Berry Schools. A lot of my friends and other men were killed around me and some of them were not able to cope as well as I was and still able to live a normal life with a good feeling of having helped my country.”

*You can take the boy out of Berry but you can't take Berry out of the boy.
Berry High School 1963 to 2004 & 41 years later*