

Thomas (Ted) E. Dean – Berry Academy Class of 1964 Berry College Class of 1968

Ted left Berry College in his junior year and joined United States Marine Corp. He spent two tours in Vietnam. His last tour of Vietnam was United States Embassy Duty working security for the United States Ambassador to South Vietnam. Ted is married to Gail Dean. They have two children Alan (27) and Kimberly (23). Both Alan and Kimberly have plans to get married this year. Ted is self employed. Ted has run a hardware store in Midway, Georgia for over 30 years.

I am sure the one thing that most of us remember about Ted was his easy going character. None of us could forget “Bubba Oats” the baby sister of the bride played by Ted Dean in the play “A Womanless Wedding”. I’m sure the boys we were at that age could not resist the temptation to the good nature heckling that he must have had to put up with, but Ted being the young man he was would just smile and keep going.

You can take the boy out of Berry but you can’t take Berry out of the boy.
Berry Academy the class of 1964 and 40 years later!

